Mark Your Calendar Now For Christian Stewardship Week, Oct. 26 to Nov. 2

By Dr. Chester L. Quarles
Executive Secretary

Every church in the Mississippi Baptist Convention that has not already done so is urged to mark its calendar to observe Christian Stewardship Week Sunday, October 26, through Sunday, Nov. 2.

This has come to be an annual event and is on the Southern Baptist Convention calendar of activities in which we cooperate.

It is usually during this week that next year's church budget is adopted and the Every-Member Canvass is held along with the other activities and events incident to it.

A sample packet of available stewardship materials will be sent to every pastor on the Mississippi Baptist mailing list early in August. Additional materials can then be ordered by the church for use during Christian Stewardship week.

Some churches have already set other dates for their observance of Christian Stewardship Week and still others will find it necessary to select another date. However, every church is urged to observe the week either on the suggested date—Oct. 26-Nov. 2, or the most convenient date.

The main thing to do now is to set the date—and then to begin making plans for its observance.

Prayer Meeting Saves Lives As Bus Explodes

Memphis, Tenn. (BP) Thirty-eight Baptists returning from Ridgecrest, N. C., to Memphis were stopped for a prayer service by the roadside in the Smoky Mountains Wednesday evening, July 23, when their bus exploded and eighteen of the passengers were injured.

Most seriously hurt were the driver a seventy-six year old woman, Mrs. Etta Rhodes, and eighteen year old Charlotte Morgan, a deaf girl. They were hospitalized in Knoxville, Tenn., and Cherokee, North Carolina. Others were in a Bryson City, Tenn., hospital.

As the driver, A. B. Nesmith of Scottsboro, Ala., investigated the bus to find a leak, the gas tank exploded, throwing flaming fuel upon the eighteen passengers who had gathered around. The bus was completely demolished.

S. A. Carl, leader of the group, said that the prayer meeting undoubtedly saved the lives of the Tennesseans, as had they traveled on down the mountain the explosion would have happened with all passengers aboard the bus.

CARROLL-MONTGOMERY ASSOCIATIONAL MISSION PROGRAM

The associational mission program of Carroll and Montgomery counties is now in its third year under direction of Rev. H. H. Ward and many improvements and developments have been made in addition to a record of growth in many ways.

Twelve Sunday schools have been organized, largely as the result of the setting of a functioning Sunday School Associational organization. An associational Training Union organization has also been established with comparable results among the Training Unions in the counties.

Other association-wide events held have been Vacation Bible School clinics, simultaneous evangelistic crusades, and Sunday School enlargement campaigns and group teacher-training courses.

Similar events planned include a school of missions and another evangelistic crusade.

One unusual feature has been the sending of teams of laymen over the counties promoting and explaining in full the state and southern Baptist mission program.

TALBERT SCHOLARSHIP ESTABLISHED IN TOKYO OBSERVATORY

Is Son of Miss. Pastor

A 24-year old Mississippi soldier, Cpl. Thomas Talbert, son of Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Talbert, pastor of the Macedonia Church, Brookhaven, established the Talbert scholarship fund last month in Tokyo. The scholarship fund makes it possible for eight Japanese musicians to have a full four-year course in music at the Conservatory.

The fund was begun with proceeds from his first piano recital in Japan which was at Hibiya Hall in Tokyo; five additional recitals were given in Tokyo. The fund will be augmented by proceeds from future recitals. Cpl. Talbert plans to return to Japan, following his discharge in July, to present a series of recitals which have already been scheduled.

Miss. BTU Shows 6,736 Gain In Year Now Enrolled, 98,328

JACKSON, Miss. — Mississippi Baptists enrolled 6,736 new members in Training Union during 1951, according to figures from the office of J. P. Edmunds, secretary of the Department of Survey, Statistics and Information of the Sunday School Board in Nashville.

The 1951 increase brought the total membership at the end of the year to 98,328 in 1,118 Training Unions in the state.

Dry forces in Mississippi are pictured by the wets as fighting solely to retain the status quo in the State; nothing could be further from the truth!

We face the fact that for a number of years a bad situation existed in parts of Mississippi with bootlegging prevalent and law enforcement breaking down in some 18 of the 82 counties. During the last two years, however, a decided reaction has set in, and the people have become interested in good government as never before. They have entered with new enthusiasm into the politics of their county and state, and have begun to let candidates for office know in no uncertain terms what they expect of them. The result has been a tightening of law enforcement in county after county, even on the Coast and on the infamous "Gold Coast."

Your United Dry Association has built up files on public officials over the state on the basis of the questionnaire sent to all candidates for law-making and law enforcing offices last summer, and on the basis of the last legislative session. In addition, 12 bills aimed at improved law enforcement were introduced in the legislature. All of these bills, including that for repeal of the Black Market Tax, were allowed to die in committee—were not even considered!

In a word, the over-all program of the United Dries is a continuing one, aimed at not only retaining our prohibition laws, but also at strengthening them, and assuring their enforcement, as well as other criminal laws in a much more satisfactory manner. The repeal of the hypocritical Black Market Tax law, the banishment as nearly as possible of the Bootlegger, Professional Gambler, Dope Peddler, the Road House, Honky Tonk, etc., and carrying on a constant educational program to combat the propaganda of the wets, constitute a major part (Continued on Page 2)

Mississippians To Serve In Argentina

Attributes Decision To SS Teacher, RA Camp

A Mission story told by the superintendent of a Junior department, the influence for missions in an R.A. camp, and the training of a Christian mother—together these shaped a young life to be a missionary for Christ. Bill Ferrell attributes to these Christian influences his nearness to Jesus and his willingness to follow Him "Wherever He Leads."

Both natives of Mississippi and graduates of Mississippi College, Rev. and Mrs. William Hasel Ferrell were appointed missionaries to Argentina at the July meeting of the Foreign Mission Board. Mr. Ferrell is now the Royal Ambassador secretary for Alabama, where he has served since March, 1949. They will make their permanent American home in Greenville.

Mr. Ferrell attended the University of the South, Sewanee, Tenn., and the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, and was graduated from Mississippi College, Clinton, and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Ky.

Of his conversion and call to special Christian service, he told the Board: "It seems that my conversion was such a natural thing. As far back as I can remember Mother had tried to teach each of her children to love Jesus. In all of our conduct she directed us by Christian principles. Also through Sunday School, Training Union, and the worship services of the church Jesus was made real to me."

"One Sunday night when I was nine I gave my heart to God. Although I had such a limited understanding of what had actually happened to me, I felt like a new person. I belonged to God! I wanted to live for him."

Mr. Ferrell said that he became interested in missions one year later when the superintendent of the Junior department of the Sunday school told a mission story in general assembly. He said his interest in missions was increased at the age of 12 when he went to his first Royal Ambassador camp at Castalian Springs, near Durant.

For two years he served in the Navy Air Corps. While taking a pre-chaplain course in the V-12 Program (Continued on Page 2)

gram, he was licensed to preach. Mrs. Ferrell is the former Opal Miriam Young, of Port Gibson. She was graduated from Mississippi College and attended the Woman's Missionary Union Training School, Louisville.

The daughter of a Baptist preacher, Rev. Leon V. Young of Clinton, Mrs. Ferrell said: "I don't remember when I first realized my need of a Saviour; but when I was 10 years old I decided that I wanted to live for Jesus. I'll never forget my first feelings of newness of life and of a kinship with other Christians. After my baptism, my life took on a new meaning and I was happier than I had ever thought possible."

Regarding her call to foreign missions, she said: "When I was 14 we moved to a small town in central Mississippi. At one of the church meetings, I heard Miss Minnie Landrum, missionary to Brazil, speak; and as she told of the great needs of the peoples around the world my heart was challenged as never before. I began to consider foreign mission service. However, I didn't consider it too seriously until my junior year in college when I went to Ridgecrest during Baptist Student Union Week. . . . At Ridgecrest, I committed myself wholly to God's will for my life. I have know ever since that God does want me for service on a foreign field."

Mr. and Mrs. Ferrell have a son, William Curtis, two years old.

Liquor Campaign . . .

The election this summer is incidental to the great program of work which has been in progress for two years already. That program can be assured of success by an overwhelming vote of confidence on August 26th! Not only should we have in mind our Christian duty as to the legal whiskey question when we vote, but we should bear in mind the effect of that vote on the over-all moral tone of our life as a state in the years to come.

Our people have been wonderfully united and revived by the great crusade led by Billy Graham. Dr. Graham spoke out in no uncertain terms on the whiskey question, reminding our people that with all our weakness we are a thousand times better off than the so-called "Legal Control" states. The effect and impact of that crusade, and the mounting interest of the people in the referendum campaign, are being felt in every section of the state, and Mississippi will never be the same following them. Should the wets win, we will certainly never be the same—for the worse, but following the great victory that aroused citizens are demanding, we will never be the same—for the better.

The United Dry Association pledges an untiring fight for the right in the days to come. The effect of a tremendous majority for the right on August 26th, however, will in great measure determine its success. Meantime, don't let the charge that we fight solely for the status quo go unchallenged. Vote the Bottom Line (X) Against Legal Whiskey on August 26th.

Trinity Church Organized With 67 MembersWas 1st, Biloxi, Mission

Trinity Church was organized on July 20 in Gulf Coast Association from West Biloxi Mission, a branch of the First Church, Biloxi. There were 67 charter members, and more were added during the revival held the following week.

Dr. G. C. Hodge, pastor of Biloxi, First, was the moderator and Rev. W. S. Allen of Pass Christian served as clerk. Rev. J. Hoffman-Harris has served as pastor of the mission and was elected as full-time pastor of the church. He has moved from Biloxi, where he has been assistant pastor of the First Church.

The Trinity Church is located in the greater Biloxi sub-division on land purchased by the churches of the Gulf Coast Association. Much of the finishing work on the building has been done on Saturdays by the men of the church.

Sunday School attendance has gone over 100 and an active W. M. S. has been functioning from the beginning. A Training Union will be organized in the immediate future.

Dr. S. B. Platt, prominent physician and Baptist layman of Columbus, has written a pamphlet entitled "An M. D. Speaks." The pamphlet is published and distributed by the Columbus Association Brotherhood. If everybody in Mississippi would read this pamphlet, there would be less liquor drinking. It is one of the best of its kind that we have read.

W. C. Blanton, formerly a member of Bowmar Avenue Church, Vicksburg, was licensed to preach on May 7 and is now studying for the ministry at Mississippi College.

Mr. Blanton is a graduate Engineer and was connected with U. S. Engineers from 1940 until June of this year. He filled the pulpit at Bowmar Avenue Church where Rev. O. Lee Chambers is pastor.

The small town churches reported an increase of 3.9 per cent, village churches, 5.4 per cent and open country churches, 3.7 per cent.

A Refreshing Development

One of the most refreshing developments in recent months has been the widespread interest among pastors and other church employees in the Retirement Plans.

The current interest in this vital phase of our work is the greatest we have ever seen in the years the Plans have been in effect.

Approximately 50 applications have been received during the past 2 or 3 months, nearly half of them for the Widows and Annuity Plan.

We are glad to see our pastors and other church staff members seeing the need of joining these plans and thereby making provision for themselves and their families in their hour of need.

There are yet, however, several hundred pastors in the state who have not joined either plan and we trust this suggestion will prompt them to do so.

A pastor or other church employee can join the Ministers Retirement Plan at any time; however, the time during which one can join the Widows Plan in 1952 is limited so now is the time to join both plans.

These Plans are Mississippi Plans but are administered by the Relief and Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, Dallas, Texas.

As Others Saw It

Continuing the series of editorials giving the ideas of other Southern Baptist editors concerning the Southern Baptist Convention, we give below some expressions of opinion:

Dr. Richard N. Owen, editor of Tennessee's Baptist and Reflector thought the Convention was missionary-minded. As he wrote:

"The great session Wednesday night was a marvelous experience with new and old missionaries on the platform. Appeals voiced by these and by pastors recently returning from great needy areas hearts burdened for the Christless people was soul stirring.

"It was constructive. The Convention adopted readily the enlarged budget and is committed to a big problem.

"Confidence was expressed that the expansion under way in new facilities was not too heavy a financial load to carry but at the same time voices of caution were raised that ought to be heeded. Baptists must not let themselves be caught with debts that could become oppressive with a sudden economic change."

Rev. W. Barry Garrett, editor of the Arizona Baptist Beacon,

AND A NEW LEG TOO, SAM

labelled the Convention "Positive." He wrote:

"The positive, aggressive note was sounded throughout the meetings. Many of the addresses were clear enunciations of the Baptist position and there was little denunciation by the speakers. There was a maximum of the positive and a minimum of the negative in Miami.

"Confidence in our denomination leadership was felt by the convention. No one doubted the integrity or intentions of the men who have been elected to places of leadership in our convention and in our boards and agencies."

Editor Barrett also noted "the rise of many young men to places of leadership... the main line for the Southern Baptist Convention to travel and which it has travelled for more than 100 years is the cause of missions."

Baptists to Contribute Cost of Methodist And Catholic Hospitals

Religious News Service reports that President Truman has asked Congress to appropriate $9,055,000 for federal aid in the construction of two new hospitals to be operated by religious groups in the District of Columbia.

The funds are part of a $11,400,000 supplemental budget request delivered to Congress asking funds for five hospital projects in the capital city, three of which, aggregating $2,355,000, are non-sectarian and $9,055,000 for a Catholic and a Methodist hospital.

It is anticipated that $3,500,000 would go to Sibley Hospital (Methodist) to pay half the construction cost of a new 350-bed hospital to replace its present antiquated 250-bed facilities. A total of $5,555,000 would go to Providence Hospital, a Roman Catholic institution, for a new eight-story medical center to be erected near the Catholic University of America campus.

In other words, this means that Baptist tax money and the tax money of others will be used for building hospitals owned and controlled by other denominations.

We have no objection to any group, religious or not, building hospitals. But we again state that we oppose helping build hospitals for other denominations. Nor do we ask that their tax money be used to help us build hospitals.

At the recent meeting in Miami, Southern Baptists voted to build a hospital in Jacksonville, Florida, but they did not ask the United States government to force Catholics, Methodists and others to help pay for it.

Losses Exceed Gains

The business man who operates a business whose expenses are greater than the profits will sooner or later go broke unless he has unlimited resources. The Wets in Mississippi are making the claim that liquor should be legalized because we will then get some revenue from it. But will we? Of course, there will be some revenue but in the long run we will spend more in getting the revenue than we receive from the revenue. For instance:

The state of Massachusetts (A Special Commission appointed by the Legislature to study the liquor problem) reported the cost of drunkenness in 1943 to be more than four times the TOTAL revenue from liquor taxation. The revenue was $13,139,266. BUT the commission reported that the tangible costs to the state were $61,000,000. The state lost $47,860,734 on the deal. Wets and Drys alike helped to pay the loss.

In a letter dated Jan. 2, 1952, Judge Joseph T. Zottoli, Chairman of the special commission named above, wrote, "IF WE WERE REPORTING TODAY WE WOULD REPORT THAT IT COSTS THE STATE $10 FOR EVERY $1 TAKEN IN."

And added to the above staggering cost of legal liquor should be an estimated $20,000,000 for lost wages due to drinking.

Kansas recently voted to legalize liquor. According to WET newspapers in Kansas, and certainly they would not exaggerate to the dry side, "Repeal has failed."

Often we see reference to the fact that all states except Mississippi and Oklahoma are wet. Don't believe it. While all states except Mississippi and Oklahoma have repealed state-wide prohibition, the truth is that approximately FORTY per cent of the United States is dry. County after county in many of the so-called wet states have voted DRY.

Our Readers Write

Dear Editor:

I am a regular and a loyal reader of the Baptist Record. I want to ask a question.

Why haven't you given more publicity to the Billy Graham meeting?

A PASTOR.

Comment: The answer depends on what you mean by MORE.

We feel that we gave it good publicity. In the issue of June 12 we had a front page article. The following week we had a front page article about the opening service and a three column picture of the crowd. In addition to the above we had a front page article in the past week's issue concerning the visible results of the meeting. We even took the time to have each Jackson Baptist Church contacted in order to get these results.

It must be remembered that the Baptist Record is for all of Mississippi and not just for the territory surrounding Jackson.

I am a Catholic myself but I put fair play, tolerance, and humanity far above any religion. If the Pope, the cardinals, the archbishops and bishops would petition Dictator Franco to stop the persecution of religious minorities in Spain he would comply with the petition within 24 hours."

S. S. Kelley Begins Indian Springs Pastorate

Rev. S. S. Kelley has accepted the pastorate of the Indian Springs Baptist Church in Jones county and moved on the field on July 22. He came to the church from the half-time pastorates of the Bethel and Beulah churches in Newton county.

A revival will be held on August 10.

Upon moving to his new home, Pastor Kelley found the kitchen cabinet filled with groceries and canned things. His new address is Route 5, Laurel.

The First Church of Louisville has voted to increase the building fund loan to air condition the new sanctuary, construction of which was begun last week. Joe McCully, chairman of the deacons, made the recommendation after the finance committee and building committee had met in joint session Sunday afternoon to discuss the matter.

Editor's Note: This weather was a good time to bring up air conditioning.

Dr. C. L. Nicely, pastor of the Main Street Church, Wadsworth, Ohio offers two suggestions concerning the urgent need for building funds for churches in the west. They are: (1) that the Southern Baptist Convention launch a money raising campaign to assist needy new churches in building. (2) That all the larger and wealthier Baptist Churches of the Southern Baptist Convention, who are well able to, foster and to loan privately as a church to some organization in need of a building.

MISS MARCIA JACKSON

The young lady pictured above is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Jackson of Hazlehurst, five years old, and winner of first place in the Bible Story Telling for beginners at the District One Convention which met at Hazlehurst.

We are happy to have her picture available and she represents one of the fourteen first place winners in the state. The others are Eva Carolyn Aultman, Holly Springs; Gayle Leech, Wheeler; Thomas Lee Parker, Calhoun City; Bonnie McGee, Louisville; Curtis Hugh Makamason, Newton; Glena M. Boling, Paul Truett Church, Rankin Co.; Don Hardin, Lucedale; Dottie Brownlee, Gulfport; Dianne Smith, Prentiss; Betty Wade, Ethel; Diane Duck, Rolling Fork; Doug Keilum, Tutwiler; Roy Byara, Marks. These boys and girls are getting a good start in life. They have parents who are teaching them the Bible. They have leaders who are encouraging them in Bible study. "Train up a child in the way he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it." Proverbs 22:6.

MY CHURCH

By Jerry Mize, Jackson

In the year 1838, a small group of devout Christians organized themselves into the First Baptist Church of Jackson, Mississippi. They succeeded in erecting a house of worship which they used from 1844 to 1894. This building still stands on the corner of North West and Yazoo streets.

With great difficulty the new church was built at the cost of $35,000. So great was this undertaking that Mississippi Baptists as well as the Home Mission Board had to help meet the obligation.

This church, located on Capitol Street at North President, was dedicated in 1901 and served a growing, prospering membership until the present half-million dollar building was occupied October 5, 1926.

The First Baptist Church is a beautiful and inspiring sight. True, it was the First Baptist Church of our city and still remains so. In prestige, influence and leadership, it is first in Mississippi and near the top in the Southern Baptist Convention.

But all the worth of a church is not to be found in its house of worship made of stone and brick and marble. It must be made of great people.

Across President Street looking at each other are two noble structures. One, our State Capitol, stands for the laws of our land. It wields a political sceptre. But on the other side of the street stands the Mighty House of God. It upholds the Biblical Laws and wields spiritual power.

Were it not for the churches in our land that exert a good influence, the State Capitols would be of little value to us. It is said, "The proper place for a ship is in the water, but water in a ship makes it sink. The proper place for the church is in the world. The world in the church makes it sink but the church in the world lifts it."

The First Church is also first to me as it is MY Church.

It is first in my experience as it is the only one I have ever known.

ITS DOORS are open to me always. Through them I may enter as often as I choose to worship God.

ITS ALTAR is before me as a reminder that my church wants the energies of every young man.

ITS TREASURY is eager for my financial gift that it may help send the gospel around the world.

ITS SYMPATHY is extended to me in my hours of trial and trouble.

ITS MISSION is to draw all men, rich or poor, sick or well, into a fuller knowledge of God, and a deeper consecration to His Son.

ITS LOVE encircles me and ITS CHRIST, for whom it was built, whose Name it honors, whose Gospel it preaches, who is the Center about which it revolves, is My Lord and My Saviour.

Note: Jerry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Mize, Superintendent of the Baptist Orphanage.

Hazlehurst Church To Conduct Week's Stewardship Meet

First Church of Hazlehurst, Rev. R. C. Holcomb, pastor, will conduct a Stewardship Revival the week of August 31-September 7.

Dr. B. C. Land, well known stewardship revivalist, will conduct the campaign, which will climax and close a year's special improvements and developments in the church.

The present church budget is $36,000 and plans will be formulated during the revival to expand and improve this budget.

At the beginning of the church year, October 1, 1951 a special committee with F. C. Wilcoxon as the chairman, was appointed to study the entire church plant and program with a view to improvement.

Many improvements and additions have been made. A better record system and office equipment has been installed, a youth worker has been employed for the summer months, a graded music program has been developed and the church sanctuary is now being renovated and remodeled.

BY WAY OR REVIEW

Since we now lack only two months being through this Sunday School year, let's take a quick look at the program that was suggested for us this year, and also call to mind again the goals for all Southern Baptist Sunday Schools to work toward.

Here are some of them:

Theme: "Take Your Family to Sunday School."

That is a good one, and we might well make it part of our program every year. We do want to reach every member of every family.

Work Theme: "Provide in Every Church for Every Member of Every Family."

The idea here is that if we ask people to come, we surely want to have a place for them after they get there. Many schools do not. They have no nursery for the babies birth through three. And many times schools do not have other classes and departments they should have.

Goals:

1. A net enrollment gain of 500,000.
2. 200,000 additional complete families in Sunday School.
3. 2,000 additional churches with a full-time program of work.
4. An Expanding Bible-Teaching Program, including:
 - a. An enriched Sunday morning session.
 - b. A Vacation Bible school of two weeks.
 - c. January Bible Study Week.
 - d. Using Bible books in Training course.
 - e. Working for daily family Bible study.

Well, there they are, and they are worthy of our best. Have we put them into the program this year? If not, we have only two months to do it. Lots can be done even in two months, if we work hard and plan much for it.

BY WAY OF PREVIEW

Since we now have only two months of this year left, let's also take a quick look at some things that need very much to be in the limelight for these remaining few weeks. It is always a great thing to close out the year in high gear. But we will never do it without some extra work and planning.

Well, what? Here are some things:

1. Make definite plans for Promotion Day. This day must be properly observed each year if we are to keep our schools well graded, and grading is a MUST to have the best school.
2. Plan for some new classes on Promotion Day. One for the 17-year olds, if possible. If not that, try one for the 17 and 18-year olds, boys and girls in separate classes.
3. Plan for as many classes for Intermediates as for Juniors. We do ourselves and our people a grave injustice many times by our failure right at this point. There are as many Intermediates in the community as there are Juniors, so plan for them on that same basis.
4. Elect all officers and teachers by the church before Promotion Day. It is so important that this be completed before that time so the newly elected organization can go into operation on time. This can be done if the nominating committee is appointed in time.

5. Order free literature for officers clinic. October is the time for the clinic of all officers. They want to do but many of them are untrained and do not know what to do. So train them as early and as well as possible. It will help so much.

6. Plan for Group Training School in October. This is the best time for it because it is at the beginning of the new year. If a Group school cannot be worked out, plan for a school all your own, but the important thing is to have it.

SEND REPORTS TO JACKSON

Frequently reports of Sunday school study classes, and also individual papers on home study, are sent to Nashville first.

This should not be, and it only causes a delay in getting the awards. The Nashville office sends all such back to the Jackson office for us to process them and make formal application from here to them to send the awards.

Therefore, please send all papers and reports of any Sunday school study course work to the Sunday School Department, Box 530, Jackson, Miss., and not to the Nashville, Tenn., office. Thank you.

SEND VBS REPORTS

Many reports of Vacation Bible schools are coming to us now from all sections of the state. We are so grateful for this.

Be sure and report your school. If it has not yet been reported, do so at once, so that it will not be omitted.

If you do not have as complete report as you would like, send what you have. You can give the enrolment, average attendance, etc., and that will help us much. So, send us that report of your school. We need it, and we shall be so grateful to you for sending it. Write us for blanks.

BROTHERHOOD DEPARTMENT

R. R. ROBERTS, Secretary JO ANN SUMMERS, Office Secretary

Elements of A Good Brotherhood Program

Bernard King of Georgia made a survey recently of the points that were stressed by Tapscott of Texas and Schroeder of Memphis in messages dealing with Elements of A Good Brotherhood Program. A combined summary follows.

1. The success of the Brotherhood is dependent upon good programs.

2. Programs should be related to a central theme and have a definite purpose.

3. Programs should be planned as to provide variety in type and use many men.

4. Programs should relate to those things the Brotherhood is doing or expects to do.

5. Many sources of program material should be used. Some suggested sources are (1) Brotherhood Journal, (2) The Commission, (3) Home Missions, (4) The Christian Index, and (5) Other denominational publications.

What To Do At Brotherhood Meetings

(1) There should be a devotional period, including group singing, scripture reading, and prayer.

(2) Opportunities for personal testimony with many men participating is an outstanding feature of many Brotherhoods. (3) The business period should be handled in a manner to dispose of all business in an efficient and speedy manner. This can only be done when the Executive Committee has met and made plans. (4) A period, with the membership vice-president in charge, should be observed when visitors, new members, etc., are recognized. At this time, special attention should be given to absentees. Several Brotherhoods at this time give the names of absentees to members for them to contact.

(5) There should be a period for reports of activities. This should be under the direction of the activities vice-president, who will call on chairmen of committees for their reports. Some Brotherhoods are asking committees to report, through their chairmen, to the Executive Committee. The activities vice-president then gives a summary of these reports to the Brotherhood at its meeting. (6) Some definite informational feature should be brought to the men at each meeting. This period is often under the direction of the education committee. At this time a tract may be distributed, or a brief statement may be given concerning some phase of Baptist work.

50 YEARS AGO—

The Bethel Baptist Church, Sunflower county, closed "a most interesting meeting" with twelve additions, ten for baptism. Pastor E. T. Mobberly was assisted by Rev. J. E. Barnett of Leland.

40 YEARS AGO—

Pastor D. W. Moulder writes of the Pine Grove revival meeting, Simpson county, during which Rev. W. P. Chapman did the preaching, and from which 21 were added to the church, 17 for baptism. The church is only four years old, and has 240 members.

Rev. W. E. Farr of Columbia tells of having been with Pastor R. A. Eddleman in a revival meeting in the Kokomo Baptist church, resulting in 64 additions.

Pastor Theo. Whitfield tells of a two weeks meeting in First Church, McComb, from which there were 20 baptized, Rev. D. P. Montgomery assisting.

There were 40 additions, 13 baptisms and 27 by letter, in a meeting with the Lucedale Baptist Church, in which Pastor Chas. C. Jones was assisted by Rev. W. A. McComb and Singer W. B. Scholfield of Gulfport.

25 YEARS AGO—

Pastor B. E. Phillips had as his helper Dr. P. I. Lipsey in a revival meeting in the Stonewall church, Simpson county, when 13 were added to the church, nine of these for baptism.

Evangelists Wade Smith and M. E. Perry conducted an evangelistic campaign in the Greenville school house, Marion county, resulting in 14 people uniting with the Greenville church, six with the Clear Creek church, and two with the Bay Creek church.

Pastor D. O. Horne reports a revival of "the old time religion" type at Lorman in which he was assisted by Rev. A. A. Kitchings of Louisville, Ky. There were four accessions.

United Drys Form Women's Division

HENRY EDMONDS

Henry Edmonds, Executive Director of the United Dry Association of Mississippi, has announced the reformation of the Women's Division for the liquor referendum campaign to be held August 26.

Miss Almarine Brown, of Jackson, President of the Mississippi Woman's Missionary Union of the Baptist denomination, was named the chairman, and the state committee is composed of Miss Brown, Mrs. R. L. Ezelle, of Jackson, state president of the W. C. T. U., Mrs. J. A. Burt, Jr. of Clarksdale, and Mrs. J. W. Clark, of Utica, Conference Secretaries of Christian Social Relations of the North Mississippi Conference and the Mississippi Conference of the Methodist Church respectively, Miss Edwina Robinson, of Jackson, Executive Secretary of the Woman's Missionary Union, and Miss Nell Taylor, of Jackson, Young People's Secretary of the Baptist denomination.

This strong woman's committee will commence immediately setting up prayer groups over the entire state and otherwise working in close co-operation with local organizations of the Association, according to Edmonds.

"I believe that the setting up of the Women's Divisions and the spontaneous interest manifested by youth groups in the last few days, itself rapidly crystallizing into a state organization, are the most important developments in the campaign thus far and will assure an overwhelming dry victory on August 26th," Edmonds stated.

★★ GRAYS OINTMENT

WILBANKS URGES STUDY OF 1953 CALENDAR NOW

EVERY NEW MOMENT HAS A SMALL BEGINNING. Our Southern Baptist Program of Evangelism is no exception. The "simultaneous revivals" phase of this great movement to win more people to Christ did not begin on a small scale in Mississippi, however. It burst forth in state-wide proportions in its first sweep of two weeks, during the crusades in all out Southern Baptist states east of the Mississippi in 1951, says Dr. C. E. Wilbanks, director of Evangelism for Mississippi Baptists.

The largeness of first such crusade accomplished much!! All glory to the Lord of the Harvest, and all gratitude to His faithful men for all that was accomplished. The floodtide swept over before any terraces were thrown up—or any levees constructed. It's going to be easy to get mentally caught in the back-wash of such a stupendous and new movement, to our detriment for future crusades, and to our undoing in putting out the hard work entailed in promoting simultaneous revivals association by association, year by year.

A small beginning for simultaneous revivals is seen when a few churches in an association undertakes such a thrilling and glorious achievement. Year by year that number should increase as others see achievements and find their hearts burning to win the lost. Despise not the day of small things, is God's challenge to us.

Now is the time to begin studying the associational calendar for 1953 to arrive at a date for the associational simultaneous revivals. The first step is taken by the associational organizer and chairman.

Simultaneous revivals constitute only one phase of our Biblical, church centered program of evangelism. Other emphasis are as follows one other revival in each church each year, making at least two revivals annually; perennial soul winning, week by week, led by the Evangelism Church Council; and the conservation of life for Christ's usefulness, through the pastor's class for new members.

Get the whole thrilling plan, and follow it, as set forth in the book, The Southern Baptist Program of Evangelism, revised edition, 1952. (Order from the Baptist Book Store, 113 N. President, Jackson, Miss. $1.00)

The association has been urging business executives to give the maximum five percent to charitable purposes allowed by present corporation income tax laws and to do so on a comprehensive long-range program rather than merely as piecemeal "hand-outs."

Entitled "The Manual of Corporate Giving," the new volume has been edited, as was the first, by two eminent "business economists, Beardsley Ruml and Theodore Geiger.

Corporate donations cost the companies making them as little as 18 cents on the dollar, the manual emphasizes, and bring tangible as well as intangible rewards to American businesses.

Sunday School Lesson

Prepared by Dr. L. Bracey Campbell

For Aug. 3

SAMUEL, JUDGE AND PROPHET
Bible Texts 1 Samuel 4-12.

INTRODUCTION

In our latest lesson we saw how God through the agency of a good mother made and prepared a great leader. Let us now notice the sterling elements of which the character of this man was composed, the functions that he performed, and tremendous effects of all this upon the leader's people.

I. Elements Composing Samuel's Character

1. Absolute obedience. This distinguished Samuel all his life. In the words he spoke to Saul (1 Sam. 15:22), "Behold to obey is better than sacrifice and to hearken than the fat of rams."

2. Unusual Industry. This distinguished Samuel as it distinguishes all great men of all time. Samuel was a man of unremitting toil. All his life he was a great worker. Whatever his hand found to do, he did with all his might. This is a virtue without which there is no successful life, and one very much needed in our day.

3. Sympathy with the Weaknesses of Others. Samuel hated sin, but he loved the sinner. It became necessary for him to tell Saul that he had so grievously sinned against God that God had rejected him from being king, but then Samuel wept for Saul and grieved for him for years.

4. Self-abnegation. Samuel sought nothing for himself. He sought great things for God, and since the glory of Jehovah was bound up with His people Samuel sought the good of Jehovah's people. Samuel wanted, with an eagerness that was consuming, to see his people glorify Jehovah in their living.

5. Adaptability or Versatility. That a jack-of-all-trade is good at home is a general principle well established, but here was a man so richly gifted that he was able to serve Jehovah in a number of important capacities. Blessed is the man who can adapt himself to the needs of his present situation. Frankness, Sincerity, Courage. No frowning danger dampened his ardor for the truth, no muttering stormcloud broke his will, prostrated his courage. He stood fast.

II. Samuel's Distinct Functions

1. Priest at Mizpeh. Here we see a great and earnest man pleading for his sinning people. They had sinned! He did not deny that, in fact, they themselves did not deny it; and having realized that they had sinned against Jehovah, the people felt a need of a day's-man, go-between, one to stand between them and an offended God and plead their cause with Him. Everywhere that men have lived or do live on the earth we find them conscious of this need, the need of one among themselves, made by some means better than themselves, to make amends for them. This is a sacred function in the sight of all people, and this function Samuel performed in a manner truly magnificent.

2. Prophet This is the man who speaks for God. He may predict or foretell coming events, but this is not his chief work. That is to speak God's word to His people. Of course the prophet determines what the word of God is; for, to go speaking his own word for his own profit, is to be that despicable character, a false prophet, or a non-prophet. Samuel was a prophet of Jehovah when with boldness he spoke for the Lord and commanded the people to put away the false gods and return unto Jehovah that He might bless them. There is no greater need among men today than that of real prophets to speak with authority God's message to the men of our generation.

3. Judge. Samuel was a circuit judge, and his circuit embraced Bethel, Gilgal, Mizpeh, Ramah. He held court at each of these places in turn. Throughout the period of the Judges the people looked to their deliverer from their enemies to be their judge. To him they brought all the causes of disagreement among them for the judge's adjudication, and the judge gave his opinion and that opinion seems to have been one from which there was no appeal. It is, then easy to see why the judge had need to be a man of sterling honesty, and free from the spirit of veniality as well as being learned in law and equity.

III. The Effect of Samuel's Life Upon the People

Revival. That's the word. The people returned to Jehovah, and their return brought with it a period of prosperity and happiness which lasted just so long as the warmth of the revival persisted. It will be profitable for us, I think, to stay our attention for a brief while on the factors that entered into this revival, which are the same as must enter into any situation now in which we hope to bring about a revival.

1. Unity. All Israel came together at Mizpeh. A church may have a protracted meeting and a whole people, divided into cliques and factions may claim, each one of the parties, that they are seeking the face of the Lord, but there will not be a revival till there is unity.

2. Confession. The people got together and got conviction of sin against Jehovah. Christian churches will never have revival in any one or all of them till their members become willing to confess their sins to God.

3. Forsaking sin. There is no substitute for this turning away from sin. No one, no congregation, can expect to have fellowship with the Lord God Almighty while holding onto the false gods of sin, ungodliness, in all or any of its many and horrid forms.

4. Bible Study and Intercessory Prayer. The people of Mizpeh wanted to know what was the word of Jehovah to them. That desire must lay hold of the hearts of the people of this day and place if they would enjoy the blessings of genuine revival.

Added to this there must be such a desire for the salvation of others as to lead to prayer, earnest, unwrought, persistent prayer for

MACEDONIA DEDICATES $10,000 BUILDING

Macedonia Church, DeSoto Association, has completed the construction of a $10,000 concrete and wood structure. Dedication services were held on the last Sunday in July, with Rev. Grant Clark of Hernando as guest speaker.

The Rev. Mr. Clark will be the evangelist in the revival beginning August 3. Both morning and evening services are planned throughout the week. Rev. W. Leon Scarborough is the pastor.

GOOD HOPE REVIVAL ADDS TWENTY-FIVE

Twenty-five were added in the revival at Good Hope Church, Winston county, July 20-27, of whom twenty-three came on profession of faith.

One young man, Clinton Goodin, surrendered his life for full-time Christian work.

Rev. Frank Crawford was the evangelist and Rev. Bob Posey, pastor, directed the music and served as soloist.

According to Mrs. J. W. Whitehead, some members who have attended the church for 50 years say it was the greatest revival they can remember.

them. The people at Mizpeh pled with Samuel, "Cease not to cry unto Jehovah our God for us, that he will save us". There are a great many things employed as adjuncts to revival by the professional evangelists, but this is essential, however non-scriptural others may be. There comes nowhere a revival that is not prayed down from heaven.

5. Whole-hearted yielding of the life to God, singing "I surrender all", and meaning it.

Dr. Cauthen to Return to States

Dr. Baker James Cauthen, secretary for the Orient for the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board, will make his headquarters in Richmond, Va., after September 1, 1952. The move from Tokyo, Japan, to Board headquarters in Richmond is made at the request of the Board.

Commenting on the move, Dr. M. Theron Rankin, executive secretary, said: "Because of shifting conditions in the Orient, Dr. Cauthen has made his headquarters in that area for the past several years. The Foreign Mission Board believes the time has come for the secretary for the Orient to be stationed at the headquarters in Richmond, along with the area secretaries for Latin America and for Africa, Europe, and the Near East. "From Richmond, Dr. Cauthen will maintain direct contact with the field by personal visits as conditions may necessitate. At the same time, he will participate with the secretarial staff of the Board in the over-all planning which must be done at the headquarters in Richmond.

"In establishing his headquarters in Richmond, Dr. Cauthen will strengthen the contacts between the Foreign Mission Board and the work in the Orient and will strengthen the over-all administration of the Board."

Dr. Cauthen will attend the meeting of the Japan Baptist Convention in Kokura, July 22-24, and the mission meeting in Kyoto, August 4-8, before leaving for America with his family.

Ten New Missionaries Appointed in July

The Foreign Mission Board named ten young people for overseas mission service at its July meeting, bringing the total for the year to 65.

Four of the July appointees will go to Brazil: Nadyne Brewer, Texas; Catherine Flo Chappell, Georgia; and George Bagby Cowser and Hilda Kathryn Bean Cowser, North Carolina. Four will go to Spanish-speaking Latin America; William Hasel Ferrell and Opal Miriam Young Ferrell, Mississippi, to Argentina; and Matthew Anderson Sanderford and Dora Jean McDonald Sanderford, Texas, to Uruguay. The other couple, Earl Martin Fine and Roberta Marie Robson Fine, Kansas, will go to Nigeria.

Latin America

Dr. Everett Gill, Jr., secretary for Latin America, reported that the Board's first sea-going vessel has been dedicated in ceremonies in Freeport, Tex. The 50-foot craft, christened "Dorcas," will be used by the Rev. and Mrs. C. W. McCullough in work among the English-speaking inhabitants of a group of small islands, lying off the east coast of Nicaragua, which belongs to Colombia. The two missionaries have made their headquarters for the past ten years on San Andres, a two-by-seven mile island of the group, which has about 5,000 inhabitants.

Mr. and Mrs. McCullough, who have been in the States on a year's furlough, sailed July with their children from Freeport, Texas, aboard the new vessel for the 1,500-mile voyage to San Andres.

Churches on the islands asked the Foreign Mission Board, through Mr. McCullough, for assistance in facilitating transportation of the missionaries between the islands and the Nicaraguan mainland. The boat was purchased with funds provided by the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering.

Dr. Gill read the plea of Missionary Dan Sharpley, Santa Maria, South Brazil, for more missionaries. Although the state of Rio Grande do Sul has 34 co-operative churches with a membership of approximately 3,000 and 28 national pastors and missionaries serving the area, there are still 72 out of 92 counties without any Baptist work. Missionary Sharpley listed six cities with a population of 20,000 each, 12 cities with a population of 10,000, and 11 with populations of from 5,000 to 10,000 without any Baptist work. He wrote: "We come again to voice our hopes for more missionaries. This state is wide open to missionary aid. The churches ask for it. The state demands it."

The Orient

The July report of Dr. Baker James Cauthen, secretary for the Orient, stressed the need for Bible schools for the training of national leadership on new mission fields. "On every field, evangelism and leadership training go hand in hand," he said.

Dr. Cauthen recently spent ten days with the Hawaiian Baptist Mission and wrote of the work there: "Excellent houses of worship have been constructed and splendid property has been provided for Bible school, academy, assembly, and student work. Many young people have dedicated their lives to special Christian service and some will soon assume places of responsibility in the work, adding a great deal of strength."

Dr. Cauthen reported briefly on various fields:

The recently organized church in Bangkok, Thailand, is working rapidly and services are being conducted in both Chinese and English. New missionaries there are studying the Thai language.

Hong Kong Baptists report the graduation of five students from their Bible school. Some of these students did most of their study in Canton before coming away from communist area.

In Formosa work has just been opened in Tainan and ChiaYi; and 50 people are awaiting baptism in Tiachung. It is expected that a seminary will be opened in September with 30 students, most of them with college background.
